

About the Wine

Name: Domaine de Houchart Provence Rose
Grape: Grenache, Syrah
Home: Provence - France
Descriptors: Delicate & Elegant
Weight: Stone dry rosé with fresh strawberry fruit

Where the grape prefers to live

Domaine Houchart is situated at Puylobier in Côtes de Provence. Vignobles Jérôme Quiot are a private limited company with all shares held by Quiot family.

Domaine Houchart has the 90 hectares of vines, situated at Puylobier, at the foot of the famed montagne Sainte Victoire, 25 kms east of Aix-en-Provence. Concern for the environment has meant that they have kept a number of copses containing umbrella pines, almond and olive trees, broom and many species of herbs such as thyme & rosemary.

The Wine

A delicate and elegant rose from the Provence in France. For the price tag it really transports the drinker to a slow sunny evening on the south coast of France.

Favourite Food:

Rather good with soft cheeses or grilled salmon
